

Alumnae Scholarship Housing
2020 – 2021 Program Expectations

The Alumnae Scholarship Housing (ASH) program is a unique, cooperative-living program that provides low-cost housing options for undergraduate women at The Ohio State University. It aims to connect students with a variety of resources on campus and is the premiere environment for promoting leadership in women. In exchange for reduced housing fees, students agree to actively participate in all aspects of the program as outlined below:

- Maintain a minimum 2.8 cumulative GPA
- Contribute 5-8 hours/week of cooperative work (i.e. house chores)
- Attend the following mandatory events:
 - ASH Society Welcome Event
Sunday, TBD, 2020 @ TBD
Viewpoint at Curl
 - Thanksgiving Dinner – TBD in November
 - ASH Winter Formal (likely February)
Saturday, TBD, 2020 @ TBD
Longaberger Alumni House
 - ASH Woman of the Year Banquet
Saturday, TBD 2020 @ TBD
Longaberger Alumni House
 - All-ASH Clean-Up Events – TBD as scheduled by House Manager

By signing this form, I agree that I have read and understand the Alumnae Scholarship Housing (ASH) 2020-2021 Program Expectations. I acknowledge that there may be consequences should I fail to meet the aforementioned requirements, including removal from the program.
