

Property Descriptions

The Gateway

The Gateway is a highly diverse community of approximately 310 faculty, graduate, professional, and undergraduate students. Gateway residents live in four different buildings embedded within the South Campus Gateway development: (1) Building A located above First Watch, (2) Building B located above Cane's, (3) Building F North located alongside E 11th Avenue, and (4) F South located alongside E 9th Avenue. There are single and multiple bedroom apartments, as well as, town houses. The Gateway is part of the Hall Complex, Houses, and Gateway Staff, which consists of CAs in Gateway, Neil, and the Veteran's House, as well as, Resident Advisors in Pennsylvania Place, Worthington, Scholars East, Scholars West, Fechko House, Hanley House, Pomerene House and German House.

The Neil Building

The Neil Building is part of the William H. Hall Student Residential Complex (The Hall Complex) and Gateway which consists of 8 on campus properties that cater to a variety of students including undergraduates, graduate/professional, non-traditional, cooperative living programs, international and transfer students. Neil offers apartment and suite style living for limited undergraduates, graduate/professional students, non-traditional students and student athletes. The CAs engage in more traditional RA type responsibilities (on call, bulletin boards, community programs, etc.). The Hall Complex, Houses, and Gateway staff consists of CAs in Gateway, Neil, and the Veteran's House, as well as, Resident Advisors in Pennsylvania Place, Worthington, Scholars East, Scholars West, Fechko House, Hanley House, Pomerene House and German House.

Veteran's House

The Veteran's House is part of the William H. Hall Student Residential Complex (The Hall Complex) and Gateway which consists of 8 on campus properties that cater to a variety of students including undergraduates, graduate/professional, non-traditional, cooperative living programs, international, athletes and transfer students. The Veteran's House offers single and double furnished resident rooms for a limited number of undergraduate, graduate/professional, and non-traditional veteran students. The community will house student veterans, active duty, reserves, and National Guard. The house is located three blocks from the Wexner Center for the Arts. The CA in this community will aid in transition processes of veterans and assist in acclimation of students to the University. The Hall Complex, Houses, and Gateway staff consists of CAs in Gateway, Neil, and the Veteran's House, as well as, Resident Advisors in Pennsylvania Place, Worthington, Scholars East, Scholars West, Fechko House, Hanley House, Pomerene House and German House.

Pennsylvania Place

Pennsylvania Place is part of the William H. Hall Student Residential Complex (The Hall Complex) and Gateway which consists of 8 on campus properties that cater to a variety of students including undergraduates, graduate/professional, non-traditional, cooperative living programs, international, athletes and transfer students. Pennsylvania Place will house a limited number of undergraduate students and students in the TOPS program in single and double furnished rooms. The Transition Options in Postsecondary Settings (TOPS) program offers individuals ages 18 and older with intellectual and developmental disabilities an opportunity to engage in coursework, work experiences, and independent living. The RA in this community will engage in specific programming efforts directed towards the TOPS population and collaboration with the TOPS staff. Pennsylvania Place is located one block from the Neil Building and Marketplace dining hall. Pennsylvania Place is a non-academic year building and will close during winter, spring and summer breaks. The Hall Complex, Houses, and Gateway staff consists of CAs in Gateway, Neil, and the Veteran's House, as well as, Resident Advisors in Pennsylvania Place, Worthington, Scholars East, Scholars West, Fechko House, Hanley House, Pomerene House and German House.

Please note this is a full summary of all locations, not all locations will be hiring each year depending on the current staffing needs.