The Blackburn Room is controlled by a Crestron touch panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Rack PC – for displaying the built in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- Wall Plate – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI or VGA port
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- MiraCast
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Rack PC
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Rack PC
  - Use wireless mouse and keyboard provided for room to make selections from projected desktop screen

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI/VGA
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Wall Plate
  - Connect HDMI cable to your device's HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode
  - Devices connected using HDMI should transmit audio automatically. An audio cable is required when using VGA

- Cable TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel
ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (MiraCast, Apple TV, Cable TV, Wall Plate, Rack PC)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE
PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES, KEYBOARD, MOUSE AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
OHIO ROOM
BOWEN 100

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- HDMI – switch TV to HDMI Input
  - connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - switch your device to Project mode

- Cable TV – switch TV to Cable TV
  - Point the remote at the sensor on the TV to change channels

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

REMOTE CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
VALOR ROOM
BUSCH 100

The Valor Room is controlled by a Crestron touch panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Rack PC – for displaying the built in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- Wall Plate – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI or VGA
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- MiraCast
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Rack PC
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Rack PC
  - Use wireless mouse and keyboard provided for room to make selections from projected desktop screen

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI/VGA
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Laptop
  - Connect HDMI cable to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

- Cable TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel
ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (MiraCast, Apple TV, Cable TV, Laptop, Rack PC)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

- Flat Panel TV in Combined Room Mode
  - at Crestron select Flat Panel
  - select what to display on the TV

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES, KEYBOARD, MOUSE AND REMOTE CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
HONOR ROOM

BUSCH 109

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV input to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
COURAGE ROOM

BUSCH 111

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
SERVICE ROOM

BUSCH 114

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to , chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
HERO ROOM

BUSCH 116

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote.
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
VIEWPOINT AV INSTRUCTION SHEET

CURL 2nd FLOOR EVENT SPACE

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the computer desktop on the TV
- WiDi (Wireless Display) – for screen mirroring of WiDi-enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Peer-to-Peer Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI and VGA – a cable input for connecting devices that have an HDMI port
- IPTV – for watching IPTV

The Curl Event Space AV equipment is controlled by two Crestron touch panels – one in the larger event space (Curl Viewpoint South) and one in the smaller space (Curl Viewpoint North). Use the panel in Viewpoint South by default – the panel located in the Viewpoint North only be used when the overflow has been closed off from the primary event space. The Viewpoint South space has two primary projection areas located at the front of the room.

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- Computer
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Podium PC for one or both projectors
  - no login is required for podium computer
  - browse the internet and run applications normally – please remember to return the wireless mouse to its charger

- WiDi (Wireless Display)
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast for one or both projectors
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV for one or both projectors
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI and VGA
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Podium Laptop for one or both projectors
  - connect podium HDMI or VGA cable to your device’s HDMI port or VGA port
  - Switch your device to Project mode
OFFICE OF STUDENT LIFE
TECHNOLOGY SERVICES

- IPTV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV for one or both projectors
  - point the remote at the sensor on the North projector while standing at the podium to change channels

ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (Computer, WiDi, Apple TV, MiraCast, IPTV)
  - at Crestron touch panel in center box under program, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel in center box under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

- Lighting & Shades
  - at Crestron touch panel main screen select Settings
  - select your desired settings for both blackout shades and interior lighting
  - use the switches at back of room to manually adjust both blackout shades and translucent solar shares
  - NOTE: Preset 1 has been optimized for best visibility and projection

- Flat Panel TVs in Combined Room Mode
  - at Crestron touch panel main screen, select Settings and then Combine Rooms
  - at Crestron touch panel main screen, select Flat Panels
  - select with Event A (L) or Event A (R) to display what is being projected on main screen on Event B flat panels

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL
614-902-0976
To control TV screens from Viewpoint South (smaller space) use the Viewpoint North (larger space) touch panel to take the room out of “combined mode” by selecting Settings and then Rooms Separate.

To control TV screens from Viewpoint North (larger space) use the Event A touch panel to put the room into “combined mode” by selecting Settings and then Rooms Combined.

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976
THE GROVE

HOUSTON 100

The Grove is controlled by a Crestron touch panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Rack PC – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the screen
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- Wall Plate – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI or VGA port
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- MiraCast
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Rack PC
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Rack PC
  - Use wireless mouse and keyboard provided for room to make selections from projected desktop screen

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI/ VGA
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Wall Plate
  - Connect HDMI cable to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode
  - Devices connected using HDMI should transmit audio automatically. An audio cable is required when using VGA

- Cable TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel
ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (MiraCast, Apple TV, Cable TV, Wall Plate, Rack PC)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE
PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES, KEYBOARD, MOUSE AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
SOMNO ROOM
HOUSTON 114

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- WiDi (Wireless Display) – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- WiDi (Wireless Display) – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
AMICO ROOM

HOUSTON 119

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
REPUBLIC ROOM

HOUSTON 128

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from AirPlay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads, and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
1874 ROOM
HOUSTON 200

The 1874 Room is controlled by a Crestron touch panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Rack PC – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- Wall Plate – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI or VGA
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- WiDi (Wireless Display)
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Rack PC
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Rack PC
  - Use wireless mouse and keyboard provided for room to make selections from projected desktop screen

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI/VGA
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Wall Plate
  - Connect HDMI cable to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

- Cable TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel
ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (WiDi, Apple TV, IPTV, Wall Plate, Rack PC)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE
PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES, KEYBOARD, MOUSE AND REMOTE CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
BURGEE ROOM

NOSKER 100

The Burgee Room is controlled by a Crestron touch panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- WiDi (Wireless Display)
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Rack PC
  - at Crestron touch panel, select RACK PC
  - Use Wireless mouse and keyboard provided for room to make selections from projected desktop screen

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Wall Plate
  - Connect HDMI cable to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

- Cable TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel
ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (MiraCast, Apple TV, Cable TV, HDMI, Rack PC)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES, KEYBOARD, MOUSE AND REMOTE CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
LIMA ROOM

NOSKER 116

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
NEWARK ROOM

NOSKER 119

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
MANSFIELD ROOM
NOSKER 120

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- WiDi (Wireless Display) – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
  - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
  - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
  - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
  - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
MARION ROOM

NOSKER 129

The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI

TV INSTRUCTIONS:

- Power on the TV - Aim the remote at the TV and press the red POWER button in the upper right corner of the remote
- Select Input – Aim the remote at the TV and press the black INPUT button at the top left corner of the remote. Continue to press INPUT until the desired one is highlighted and the TV will switch into that INPUT mode.
- Sound Control – Aim the remote at the TV and use VOLUME UP, VOLUME DOWN, and MUTE buttons

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS:

- Computer – switch TV to Computer input
  - no logon is required
  - browse the internet and run applications normally

- MiraCast – switch TV to MiraCast input
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV – switch TV to Apple TV input
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI (Wall Input) – switch TV to Wall Input
  - Connect HDMI cable to the wall HDMI jack and to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
The Bolder Room is controlled by a Crestron touch panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- Computer – for displaying the built-in computer desktop on the TV
- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- HDMI – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- MiraCast
  - o at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - o start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - ▪ Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - ▪ Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - ▪ Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - ▪ Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - o NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - o NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Rack PC
  - o at Crestron touch panel, select RACK PC
  - o Use Wireless mouse and keyboard provided for room to make selections from projected desktop screen

- Apple TV
  - o at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - o turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - o start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - o select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI
  - o at Crestron touch panel, select Wall Plate
  - o Connect HDMI cable to your device’s HDMI port
  - o Switch your device to Project mode

- Cable TV
  - o at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - o point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel
ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (MiraCast, Apple TV, Cable TV, HDMI, Rack PC)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

- Hand-Held Microphone
  - at Crestron touch panel under microphone, un-mute the device
  - adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down arrows
  - remove microphone from podium stand
  - press, hold, and release the button above the word Mute to turn on the microphone

- Flat Panel TVs in Combined Room Mode
  - at Crestron select Flat Panels
  - select what to display on the Left and Right TV

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE
PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES, KEYBOARD, MOUSE AND REMOTE CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK
THINK TANK AV INSTRUCTION SHEET

TORRES 100
The Think Tank is controlled by two Crestron touch panels, you can control the TVs from either panel. The AV system in this room contains equipment to display the following input formats:

- MiraCast – for screen mirroring of Wireless Display (WiDi) enabled laptops and mobile devices to the TV
- Apple TV – for screen mirroring from Peer-to-Peer Airplay-enabled Apple laptops, iPads and iPhones to the TV
- Wall Plate – a cable input for connect devices that have an HDMI or VGA port
- Cable TV – Internet Protocol TV channel tuner

INPUT INSTRUCTIONS

- MiraCast
  - at Crestron touch panel, select MiraCast
  - start WiDi, Screen Mirroring or Screen Sharing on your device
    - Android – run Screen Mirroring and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 7 – run Intel WiDi and select TV from list of available devices
    - Windows 8 – swipe from right side of screen, click Devices, click Project
    - Windows 10 – Start Menu, click Settings, click Devices, click Connected Devices, click Add a Device
  - NOTE: when selecting from multiple devices to connect to, chose one with connection serial number
  - NOTE: not all devices have WiDi functionality

- Apple TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Apple TV
  - turn on both wireless and Bluetooth on your Apple device
  - start AirPlay on your Apple device – the TV should appear in the list of available devices
  - select the TV and enter the connection code displayed on TV to pair your Apple device with the Apple TV

- HDMI/VGA
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Wall Plate
  - Connect HDMI cable to your device’s HDMI port
  - Switch your device to Project mode
  - Devices connected using HDMI should transmit audio automatically. An audio cable is required when using VGA

- Cable TV
  - at Crestron touch panel, select Cable TV
  - point the remote at the sensor on the projector pole to change channel

ADDITIONAL ROOM FEATURES

- Volume Control (MiraCast, Apple TV, Cable TV, Wall Plate)
  - at Crestron touch panel, adjust volume to the desired levels using the up and down buttons

FOR ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE PLEASE CALL 614-902-0976

CABLES AND REMOTES CAN BE CHECKED OUT FROM HALL DESK